

HARNESS RACING VICTORIA

LICENSED DRIVERS BETTING POLICY

HARNESS RACING VICTORIA

1. Purpose

The success of the Victorian Harness Racing Industry is dependent on the highest levels of integrity and professionalism being consistently demonstrated by those working in the industry.

The industry is largely funded by wagering, or betting, on the harness racing product. It is therefore imperative that any impropriety or perception thereof is avoided and there are no actions, such as participants being in breach of betting related 'rules' including but not limited to the betting on harness racing events in which the person is a participant.

The financial viability of the Victorian harness racing industry is dependent on public confidence and, in turn, contributions by wagering agencies. This financial contribution may be threatened by any perception of manipulation of the outcome of any race, any conflict of interest or any other improper relationship or conduct. It is therefore imperative that conduct of this type involving drivers is, as far as possible, avoided.

The key object of this Betting policy for drivers is to safeguard the reputation of the Victorian harness racing industry in relation to betting-related matters.

2. Scope/Background

This policy applies to all licensed drivers and also all riding participants in Monte events. This Policy accords with the 'Single Code of Practice - Part B' developed by the Racing Integrity Commissioner as the accepted standard for such a Policy.

3. Definitions

For the purposes of this Policy:

'Approved Wagering Service Provider (WSP)' has the formal approval of Harness Racing Victoria to publish race fields and take bets on harness racing events. (Approved WSP's are listed on hrv.org.au).

AHRR refers specifically to the Australian Harness Racing Rules.

'Bet' is given its usual meaning and includes:

- a) making either directly or indirectly a monetary investment on the outcome of a race.
- b) betting via any channel (face to face, internet, phone and all other means);

- c) betting via any bet type (including 'lay' betting, head to head, margin and all other means);
- d) placing a bet or having a bet placed on the person's behalf or placing a bet in another's person's account;
- e) betting by a syndicate of which a person is a member.

'Credit bet' means a bet where payment for the bet is not made by the bettor at the time of placing the bet but is settled at a later time.

'Driver' includes all categories of licensed drivers and any reference to driver also includes all riding participants in Monte events.

'the Rules' refers to the Australian Harness Racing Rules (AHRR), the Victorian Local Rules (VLR) and all policies and regulations of HRV or Harness Racing Australia (HRA) that relate or are relevant to betting.

VLR refers specifically to the Victorian Local Rules.

(a) have a horse laid on his behalf;

Explanatory Notes re Table

- (1) As per the provisions of AHRR 173, drivers and Monte riders are not permitted at any time to engage in any betting activity on any harness racing event in which they are participating as a driver or rider.
- (2) Any bets by a driver or rider totalling more than $100 on harness racing event in Australia (ie, when person is permitted to bet by virtue of not participating) must be placed on nominated/declared betting accounts.

As per the rules listed in Section 4, in addition to the above table, further rules relevant to betting exist: For example, any person (including drivers/riders) is not permitted to lay horses of a trainer when employed by a trainer in connection with training or care of such horses or within 21 days of having been so employed. Drivers/Riders are also not permitted to be in the betting area of a racecourse.

6. Public Trust

In addition to the above specific and various prohibitions highlighted in the table, it is also expected that a person will take a common sense approach to avoid, where possible, situations that give rise to a perception that you may be betting in breach of that prohibition or restriction. It is important to be aware at all times of how other people might perceive certain situations, as perception can be almost as important as reality when it comes to the integrity of racing.

7. Declarations

On an annual basis, a 'Betting Account Declaration' Form (Refer Attachment A) must be completed by all persons to whom this Policy applies. Such declaration will also include an acknowledgement to update (by way of providing a further declaration as soon as practicable) any changes to the information provided in a betting declaration.

HRV may require additional licensed or registered persons to complete an annual betting declaration.

8. Betting Account Register

Harness Racing Victoria will keep and maintain a betting account register which will record:

- a. whether each person required to complete betting account declaration has completed one;
- b. particulars of all declared betting accounts for each person required to declare a betting account;
- c. particulars of verification of declared betting accounts;

9. Monitoring and Audit

People covered by this Policy should also be aware that HRV will run regular checks with Wagering Service Providers in Australia and abroad to ensure that they are not breaching this Betting Policy or the Australian Harness Racing Rules. These checks are performed in accordance with agreements HRV has in place with Wagering Service Providers under the Victorian race fields legislation.

Harness Racing Victoria will carry out an annual review of betting account declarations and betting.

10. Breach of this Betting Policy

If a person covered by this Policy breaches this Betting Policy, HRV will take appropriate action under the Australian Harness Racing Rules which could include the removal of the privilege of holding a licence to participate in the industry.
